Equivalent to graduation from college means that you must show receipt (at the time you are being considered for appointment) of a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university, or a letter from the college or university stating that you have met all of the academic requirements for graduation.