POSITION DESCRIPTION

Labor Relations Specialist

Bulletin Date: 7/18/2019

Classes in this series are involved in representing State management under the Ralph C. Dills Act during all phases of the collective bargaining process by preparing for and participating in negotiations, impasse resolution, and contract administration activities. Work performed by incumbents in this series is typically confidential.

This is a dual function class. The first function is to serve as a supervisor over a small group of technical staff performing labor relations work. The second is to serve as a non-supervising specialist.

Positions at the Labor Relations Analyst and Specialist levels have responsibility for activities such as making recommendations to State management and advising management on making a determination regarding interpretation and application of provisions of labor agreements; ensuring State compliance with laws, policies, and labor agreements; investigating, recommending, and/or making decisions regarding disposition of grievances arising out of labor agreement administration, or grievances filed outside of the labor agreements; developing training programs for supervisory/management staff regarding State labor relations policies and proper practices in grievance handling or other areas of labor-management relations; researching and reporting on labor relations matters; participating in the development of State positions on matters within the scope of bargaining; providing assistance to task force studies on labor relations matters; and analyzing legislation, case law, and administrative regulations in the field of labor relations.

Positions allocated to the Specialist class are distinguished from Analyst positions by increased complexity, independence, authority, and responsibilities.

EXAMINATION SCOPE

This examination consists of the following components:

Training and Experience Evaluation – Weighted 100% of the final score.

The examination will consist solely of a Training and Experience Evaluation. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received. Applicants will receive their score upon completion of the Training and Experience Evaluation process.

In addition to evaluating applicants' relative knowledge, skills, and ability, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of education and/or experience, emphasis in each exam component will be measuring competitively, relative job demands, each applicant's:

Knowledge and Abilities

Knowledge of: General principles, practices, and trends of labor-management relations, public administration, human resources, or business administration; research and data collection techniques; communication techniques for gathering, evaluating, and transmitting information; and English language such as proper punctuation, grammar, the meaning and spelling of words, pronunciation of words, and rules of composition in order to effectively communicate in writing and verbally to others.

Ability to: Read, analyze, and logically interpret and apply appropriate laws, rules, regulations, memoranda of understanding, policies, procedures, and instructions; plan, organize, and conduct research, and investigatory and statistical work; reason logically, analyze situations, and develop and evaluate alternatives and take effective action; accurately secure, evaluate, analyze, and record facts; prepare clear and succinct reports, graphs, correspondence, and statistical reports; comprehend written material; communicate effectively verbally and/or in writing; consult and advise interested parties; use good judgment and make sound decisions in critical situations; establish and maintain cooperative relations and gain confidence with those contacted in the work environment; and handle stressful and/or sensitive situations with tact and labor-management diplomacy.

Labor Relations Specialist

Knowledge of: All of the above, and the collective bargaining process in the private or public sectors; principles of management rights, representation rights, and unfair practices; State and Federal labor law applicable to the public sector; the principles and scope of collective bargaining; standard negotiating strategies, tactics, and impasse procedures; grievance handling procedures; data sources pertaining to public sector employer-employee relations; and the personnel management system of the State.

Ability to: Work effectively with all levels of management; interpret and apply labor law and labor agreement provisions; develop training programs in employer-employee relations for management; obtain, analyze, evaluate, and apply data such as labor statistics and cost figures; research and write reports; communicate effectively; use good judgment and make sound decisions in critical situations; and handle stressful or sensitive situations with tact and labor-management diplomacy.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A servicewide, open eligible list for the Labor Relations Specialist classification will be established for the State of California (all State of California departments, statewide).

The names of successful competitors will be merged onto the eligible list in order of final score regardless of exam date. Eligibility expires twelve (12) months after it is established. Applicants must then retake the examination to reestablish eligibility.

Veterans' Preference will be granted for this examination. In accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, whenever any veteran, or widow or widower of a veteran achieves a passing score on an open examination, he or she shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligible list.

Veterans status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Information on this program and the Veterans' Preference Application (Std. form 1093) is available online. Additional information on veteran benefits is available at the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Career Credits will not be added to the final score for this exam, because it does not meet the requirements to qualify for Career Credits.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination and/or Employment Application (STD 678) forms are available at the California Department of Human Resources, local offices of the Employment Development Department, and through your CalCareer Account.

If you meet the requirements stated on this examination bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described in this bulletin will be rated against a predetermined job-related rating, and all applicants who pass will be ranked according to their score.

The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all applicants will be notified.

General Qualifications: Applicants must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgement, the ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the competitor is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
