POSITION DESCRIPTION

Equipment Materiel Specialist

This is the entry and journeyman level of this series. Incumbents are responsible for purchasing, receiving, storing, issuing, shipping and disposing of construction and mobile equipment and materiel in a repair or fabrication shop for mobile equipment and ensuring compliance with Purchasing Delegation and other programs.

The Equipment Materiel Specialist series describes work concerned with the equipment materiel and related assets and services for the procurement, fabrication, maintenance, repair, and disposal of mobile equipment and support operational materiel and services.

Incumbents receive and license new mobile equipment and prepare equipment check sheets. Incumbents prepare specifications for materiel and services; solicit bids; negotiate with vendors on price, delivery, or quality; award sub-purchase orders and service contracts; establish and maintain vendor price files; work with shop personnel in determining exact materials needed; provide estimates; examine defective parts and process warranty adjustments; recommend substitutions; maintain, issue, and take inventory; audit field inventories; check and issue construction and mobile equipment; are responsible for property and forms management, telecommunications equipment, and asset audits and security; maintain/oversee accountability of property and equipment; provide accurate records of acquisition, maintenance, control, and disposition of such property and equipment; ensure prompt vendor performance; resolve receiving problems and ensure proper quality of merchandise received; coordinate shipments of materiel and mobile equipment; ensure the proper handling and documentation of records regarding hazardous substances, i.e., materials and waste; provide advice and consultation to Shop Superintendents, supervisors and other field personnel involved with procurement, accountability of equipment and property management; and perform other related work. Incumbents in the higher levels may act in a supervisory capacity.

EXAMINATION SCOPE

This examination consists of the following components:

Training and Experience Evaluation – Weighted 100% of the final score.

The examination will consist solely of a Training and Experience Evaluation. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received.

Applicants will receive their score upon completion of the Training and Experience Evaluation process.

In addition to evaluating applicants' relative knowledge, skills, and ability, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of education and/or experience, emphasis in each exam component will be measuring competitively, relative job demands, each applicant's:

Knowledge of:

1. Types, specifications and identification of specialized construction and mobile equipment, tools, parts, accessories, and supplies
2. purchasing methods, ordering, receiving, storing, and issuing practices and procedures including the keeping of receiving, shipping, inventory and disposal records
3. hazardous substance handling and record keeping
4. parts interchangeability
5. electronic inventory accountability systems
6. operation of materiel handling equipment

7. basic safe work practices to protect their own safety and health and that of others

Ability to:

1. Communicate effectively at a level required for successful job performance
2. use and interpret manufacturers' catalogs and parts lists
3. determine specification compliance
4. prepare transaction documents for tools, parts, accessories, and supplies
5. keep accurate records
6. meet and deal effectively with those contacted in the course of business
7. understand and carry out oral and written directions
8. learn and work with electronic inventory accountability systems

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A departmental, open eligible list for the Equipment Materiel Specialist classification will be established by the California Department of Human Resources for the California Department of Transportation

The names of successful competitors will be merged onto the eligible list in order of final score regardless of exam date. Eligibility expires twelve (12) months after it is established. Applicants must then retake the examination to reestablish eligibility.

Veterans' Preference will be granted for this examination. In accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, whenever any veteran, or widow or widower of a veteran achieves a passing score on an open examination, he or she shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligible list.

Veterans status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Information on this program and the Veterans' Preference Application (Std. Form 1093) is available online. Additional information on veteran benefits is available at the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Career Credits will not be added to the final score for this exam, because it does not meet the requirements to qualify for Career Credits.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination and/or Employment Application (STD 678) forms are available at the California Department of Human Resources, local offices of the Employment Development Department, and through your CalCareer Account.

If you meet the requirements stated on this examination bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described in this bulletin will be rated against a predetermined job-related rating, and all applicants who pass will be ranked according to their score.

The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all applicants will be notified.

General Qualifications: Applicants must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgement, the ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the competitor is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
