POSITION DESCRIPTION

Office Technician (General)

This is the advanced journey level which regularly performs a variety of the most difficult duties and is expected to consistently exercise a high degree of initiative, independence and originality in performing assigned tasks. Positions at this level regularly require detailed and sensitive public contact and/or independent origination of correspondence involving the knowledge and application of detailed regulations, policies and procedures (e.g., positions such as secretaries to major division chiefs and one-person field office assignments comprised of a wide variety of responsibilities). Good judgment and the ability to communicate effectively is of primary importance at this level. Typically, the work at this level is rarely reviewed. In addition, positions may have responsibility for functional guidance in training and assisting less experienced employees.

Office Technician (Typing)

In addition to performing the above mentioned Office Technician (General) duties, the Office Technician (Typing) duties include the ability to type at a speed of not less than 40 words per minute from ordinary manuscript or printed or typewritten material.
