POSITION DESCRIPTION

Research Managers are responsible for leadership of a distinct research or statistical segment of a department. They plan operations, develop staffing requirements, organize and direct the work of a group of employees, and evaluate their work. They hire and separate employees. Research Managers propose and manage budgets for their operations. They set goals, manage resources to meet these goals, and report the results to their management. They direct their operations within the context of the total department and coordinate their work, and cooperate with the other parts of the department and with other organizations involved to meet overall departmental goals.

The term “research” as applied to this class series, is defined as systematic, critical, intensive investigation directed toward either a more comprehensive knowledge of the subject or for use in the resolution of program-related issues. This does not include library research solely to gather information; preparing and designing plans, projects, and specifications for transportation or construction projects; or scientific research work in laboratories.

This is a working supervisor level responsible for a small group of analysts or equivalent employees performing journey-level work. A Manager 1 personally performs the most difficult or sensitive work of the group.
