SALARY INFORMATION

Housing and Community Development Representative 1

- Range A $3,512 - $3,990 per month
- Range B $3,623 - $4,318 per month
- Range C $4,344 - $5,439 per month

Housing and Community Development Representative 2

- $5,223 - $6,542 per month.

Experience gained outside State service may be credited only if the appointing power believes the experience was satisfactory and comparable in type and quality to that of Housing and Community Development Representative 1.

Range A. This range shall apply to incumbents who do not meet the criteria for payment in Range B or Range C.

Range B. This range shall apply to persons who have either: (1) satisfactorily completed the equivalent of six months of Housing and Community Development Representative 1, Range A; or (2) six months of satisfactory experience obtained outside State service performing technical or professional housing-related duties similar to those of Housing and Community Development Representative 1.

Range C. This range shall apply to persons who have either: (1) graduated from a recognized four-year accredited college or university; or (2) satisfactorily completed 12 months within the class of Housing and Community Development Representative 1, Range B; or (3) completed 18 months of experience outside State service performing technical or professional community development and housing-related duties similar to those of Housing and Community Development Representative 1.

Typical examples of the settings of experience used in meeting the Ranges B and C criteria are: State service; Federal Government such as Housing and Urban Development, Federal Housing Administration, Farmers Home Administration; local city and county housing agencies; and private housing entities which provide work experience comparable to that of a Housing and Community Development Representative 1. Experience in different settings may be combined toward meeting the criteria.

When the requirements for the particular criteria are met and upon recommendation of the appointing power, the employee shall receive a rate under the provisions of DPA Rule 599.674, except that upon movement to Range C, the provisions of DPA Rule 599.676 shall apply.
POSITION STATEMENT

Positions exist only in Sacramento, California.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

All applicants must meet the education and/or experience requirements as stated on this exam bulletin to be accepted into the examination. Part-time or full-time jobs, regardless of whether paid or volunteer positions, and inside or outside California state service will count toward experience.

All Levels:
Experience applicable to one of the following patterns may be combined on a proportional basis with experience applicable to the other pattern to meet the total experience requirements. Additionally, State experience applied toward the "non-State experience" pattern must be in a class at a level of responsibility at least equivalent to that of one of the classes specified in the promotional State experience pattern.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Examination and/or Employment Application (STD 678) forms are available at the California Department of Human Resources, local offices of the Employment Development Department, and through your CalCareer Account.

If you meet the requirements stated on this examination bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described in this bulletin will be rated against a predetermined job-related rating, and all applicants who pass will be ranked according to their score.

The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all applicants will be notified.

General Qualifications: Applicants must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgement, the ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Education Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification form the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the competitor is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
