

“recognized APPRENTICESHIP for an electrician”

An electrician apprenticeship consists of a minimum of work hours and related instructional classes taken at an electrician training center. After completion and achievement of a passing grade, the apprentice will hold a Certificate of Apprenticeship, Certificate of Qualification or Certificate of Completion.