

Analytical: The process of studying the nature of a complex system or issue in a social service program to determine its essential features and relationships and gain a better understanding of the issue (e.g., breaking into smaller parts).

Evaluative: The process of assessing a complex system or issue in a social service program to determine or judge if it is in compliance.

Enforcement duties: The act of compelling observance of or compliance with the law, rule or obligation.