

*Equivalent to graduation from college means you must show receipt (at the time you are being considered for appointment) of a Bachelor's Degree from an accredited college or a letter from the college or university stating that you have met all of the academic requirements for graduation.