

appropriate field service experience: Refers to integrated course work involving human service organizations or professional Social Work practitioners or the faculty of the university. Field Education provides the student with an opportunity to apply classroom learning in an agency-based supervised field experience. Colleges may refer to these courses as Field Education.